The report of the committee appointing to make an examination of the committee appointing to make an examination of the control of the committee appointing the next term of the Circuit. Squire Johnson yesterday for the lar-seny of a coat and two handkerchiefs. The 'Squire committed Moore to jail or trial at the next term of the Circuit Cort. It seems to us that if the final djudication of such cases were complited to Judge Johnson, the State would save a large sum for boarding diers in jail, and the crection of the cententiary would be hastened several cars.

In this connection we would say that. The ladies who were connected with this affair, desire to return to the ladies and gentlemen of Wheeling and Bridgeport, their heartfelt thanks for their kindness in coming and their patronage while there.

We are sorry fo note that the Register of yesterday spoke of a disgraceful fight which occurred at the festival. We will just say that the local of that paper has been misniformed as to that part of it which says that several ladies were knocked down. The affair spoken of was simply this: Some one from Wheeling and one whose actions all the rest of the Wheeling friends deprecated, raised a feas with a little boy of Martinsville; the officers appeared on the scene at once, and the gentlement? from Wheeling made a hasty exit through a crowd of I adies, but did not the scene at once, and the gentlement? from Wheeling made a hasty exit through a crowd of I adies, but did not bus on the scene at once, and the gentlement? from Wheeling made a hasty exit through a crowd of I adies, but did not bus on the scene at once, and the gentlement? The five o'clock train from Bridgeport brought one car full of ladies and gentlemen, and soon after the citizens began to pour in by the desens, and by the time the boat arrived from Wheeling with its good load of friends, the grounds were full. The brass band of Martinsville was on the ground to discourse its awest music to enliven and make happy the crowd.

The substantial, lee cream and flower tables, were well patronized, and the day has long gone by since any party has enjoyed themselves to the extent the party did at the Social.
